First Week Information: Incoming First-Year/Freshman Students

All incoming first-year (freshman) students are required to participate in First Week – a series of intentionally designed events to welcome and assist you integrate into the campus community. During First Week, you will have the opportunity to meet your fellow students in the freshmen class, the members of your Cornerstone class, and staff resources from across campus. You will also have the opportunity to participate in a number of social, educational, and service events with your fellow Panthers. Although you will be given a brochure with full details about First Week when you arrive on campus, an abbreviated schedule of First Week events is accessible on the previous Webpage. We encourage you to look over this schedule as it may impact your plans while you are on campus.

General Questions

First Week activities, orientation, and housing are all overseen by the Division of Student Engagement at the College. If you have any questions regarding these events or programs at the College prior to your arrival, please feel free to contact Dr. Marc H. Shook, Vice President for Student Engagement, at mshook@lagrange.edu.

Prior to coming to campus

We encourage you to review the following helpful Websites to assist your plan prior to coming to campus:

- For a general idea of the college's rules, prohibited items, etc. feel free to refer to the link for the college student handbook from the 2016-2017 year (<http://www.lagrange.edu/resources/pdf/2016-2017-Student-Handbook.pdf>). Please be aware that the college student handbook is updated each year and will be announced via email the beginning of the Fall 2017 semester.
