Frequently Asked Questions

How many are allowed on the squad?
This year, there is no set number of how many cheerleaders are allowed on the squad.

Are male cheerleaders allowed to tryout?
Yes, male cheerleaders are allowed to tryout.

What sports do the cheerleaders cheer for?
Football, and Men’s and Women’s Basketball. We also participate in other campus activities such as Mariotti Madness and Homecoming.

Do we compete?
We haven’t in the past, but we hope to be able to compete in at least 1-2 College Cheerleading Competitions this year.

Is there a weight requirement in order to make the squad?
No. There is no weight requirement in order to make our squad.

When do you practice?
We will begin full practices in the Summer of 2009. During the summer we practice during the day. Once school begins, we will begin practicing at night. The football squad will practice at least 3-4 times during the week: Monday-Thursday. We also work out 2 times a week. The number of practices varies when basketball season starts depending on the number of games for the week.

How long is the season?
We will start practice in the Summer of 2009. Football games begin in September. Basketball games start in November and last until February.

Do you travel?
Yes. We do travel depending on where the games are located.

How much will it cost me?
Nothing. All squad members receive uniforms, warm-ups, travel bags, shoes, socks, bloomers, pom-poms, t-shirts, etc. The uniforms, warm-ups, travel bags, and pom-poms are returned at the end of the year and you keep the shoes, t-shirts, etc.

Do you offer scholarships?
LaGrange College awards over $14 million dollars in total financial aid annually. We offer a variety of federal, state, institutional, and private need-based and non-need-based grants, scholarships, loans, and student employment programs. In fact, four out of five LaGrange College students receive some form of financial assistance. However, LaGrange College is a member of NCAA Division III which is a non-athletic scholarship division. None of our athletes receive athletic scholarships, but several of them do receive scholarships, grants, or some type of financial aide assistance.

For more pictures and information about LaGrange College Cheerleading, visit the Cheerleading Webpage at http://www.lagrange.edu/athletics/cheerleading/index.html