Accountancy Minor - Minor in Accountancy

Type: Minor

The department offers a minor in Accountancy for non-business majors. Accountants provide the information on which organizations run. Understanding how to access and analyze that information makes students in any field more marketable to employers and graduate schools.

A minor in Accountancy consists of the following 15 semester hours of coursework:

- ACCT 2211
- ACCT 2212
- ACCT 3301
- ACCT 3302
- One additional ACCT or FNCE course of the student's choice approved by the Department Chair

B.B.A. with a Concentration in Accountancy - B.B.A. with a Concentration in Accountancy

Type:Major

The Bachelor in Business Administration degree program is designed to help students develop ideals that are ethically sound and socially desirable, cultivate an awareness of the social, political, and economic developments to which businesses must adapt, develop sound judgment and effective communication skills, and develop individual interests and talents. Coursework provides both the theoretical and practical foundation needed for those entering businesses, as well as government and not-for-profit organizations.

There are three concentrations in the Business major: Accountancy, Marketing and Entrepreneurship, and Sports Management. Students must choose at least one area in which to concentrate.

To declare a major in Business, the student must meet the following criteria:

1. Have a GPA of 2.50/4.00 or better or permission of program faculty;
2. Complete MGMT 2200, ACCT 2211, and ECON 2200 with a grade of "C-" or better.

To remain a major in Business in good standing, the student must meet the following criteria:

1. Complete all other major requirements with a grade of "C-" or better;
2. Maintain an overall and major GPA of at least 2.50/4.00.

Any Business major who's overall or major GPA falls below a 2.50/4.00 will be placed on probation and has one semester in which to remove the probationary status. Exceptions to the above criteria may be made at the discretion of the departmental faculty.
