Information report to College Navigator is available at <http://nces.ed.gov/collegenavigator/?q=Lagrange+College&s=all&id=140234>.

Copyright Infringement and Responsible Use of Information Technology

Copyright infringement is the act of exercising, without permission or legal authority, one or more of the exclusive rights granted to the copyright owner under section 106 of the Copyright Act (Title 17 of the United States Code). These rights include the right to reproduce or distribute a copyrighted work. In the file-sharing context, downloading or uploading substantial parts of a copyrighted work without authority constitutes an infringement.

Penalties for copyright infringement include civil and criminal penalties. In general, anyone found liable for civil copyright infringement may be ordered to pay either actual damages or "statutory" damages affixed at not less than $750 and not more than $30,000 per work infringed. For "willful" infringement, a court may award up to $150,000 per work infringed. A court can, in its discretion, also assess costs and attorneys' fees. For details, see Title 17, United States Code, Sections 504, 505.

Willful copyright infringement can also result in criminal penalties, including imprisonment of up to five years and fines of up to $250,000 per offense. For more information, please see the website of the U.S. Copyright Office at <http://www.copyright.gov/>.

LaGrange College Policy for Responsible Use of Information Technology is published in the LaGrange College Bulletin at <http://www.lagrange.edu/academics/undergraduate/academic-bulletins.html>. For more information contact the Office of Information Technology at (706) 880-8050.

Drugs and Alcohol Policies

LaGrange College prohibits the unlawful possession, use or distribution of drugs and alcohol by students, student organizations, and staff. The College's policies and sanctions on alcohol and drug abuse and offenses are published in the Student Handbook at <http://panther.lagrange.edu/pdf/student-engagement/StudentHandbook.pdf>.

Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

Effective communication is one of the major challenges in emergency management. LaGrange College has a comprehensive emergency notification system including sirens, campus-wide e-mail and a notification system. Details on these methods of communication and the College's emergency response and evacuation procedures are available in the Security Department at (706) 880-8911. LaGrange College's Emergency Preparation Plan can be viewed by clicking here. In addition, the Campus Safety and Security Report can be

Financial Aid

Descriptions of financial aid assistance available from federal, state, institutional, and private sources, financial aid application process and eligibility criteria, awarding criteria and award amount, terms and conditions of Federal Loan Programs and Work-Study, satisfactory academic progress standards for continued financial aid eligibility, and contact information for Financial Aid Office personnel are available at the Office of Financial Aid, LaGrange College, 601 Broad Street, LaGrange, GA 30240; phone number (706) 880-8217; or at <http://www.lagrange.edu/admission-and-aid/financial-aid/index.html>.

A breakdown of the estimated cost of attendance budget used to determine student eligibility for federal student aid is available at <http://www.lagrange.edu/admission-and-aid/financial-aid/cost-of-attendance/index.html>.

Information on student financial aid rights and responsibilities is available in the "What You Should Know" brochure that accompanies your award notification and available in the Financial Aid Office or here.

Financial Aid Disbursement Policies and Procedures

Financial aid funds are disbursed and applied to your student account by the Business Office on the first day of classes of each semester as payment toward tuition, room and board, if applicable, and other authorized discretionary charges. Before financial aid is disbursed, the student must submit all required documents, be registered for classes, and be maintaining Satisfactory Academic Progress.

If you should have residual funds after all charges are paid, usually from a Federal student loan, you will receive a refund within 14 days of the first day of classes or from the date the credit balance occurred. The Business Office issues and disburses refund checks. If your parent borrowed from a PLUS Loan during the academic year and the loan funds have been applied to your student account, any credit balance will be issued to the parent loan borrower.

Information on disbursement requirement is available in the "What You Should Know" brochure that accompanies your award notification and in the Financial Aid Office or by clicking here.

Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords certain rights to students with respect to their educational records. They include the right to review their educational records; request an amendment to the records; consent to or restrict disclosure of personally identifiable information; and file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning the College's alleged failure to comply with FERPA requirements. Copies of LaGrange College's policies and procedures for reviewing educational records and requests for amendment of the records may be obtained from the Registrar's Office at Banks Hall, 601 Broad Street, LaGrange, GA 30240. LaGrange College's FERPA Policy is available in the LaGrange College Bulletin or at <https://www.lagrange.edu/Bulletin/bulletin-o-academic-policies.html>.

For more information, contact the Office of Student Engagement at (706) 880-8975.

Net Price Calculator

The U.S. Department of Education requires institutions to provide prospective students with information on scholarship and financial aid options they may have at the institution. LaGrange College's Net Cost Estimator, a net price calculator, is designed to provide a prospective student with an initial estimate of scholarship and grant assistance the student may qualify for at LaGrange College. Our Net Cost Estimator is available at <http://www.lagrange.edu/admission-and-aid/financial-aid/net-price-calculator/index.html>.

Penalties for Drug Violations

A financial aid recipient who is found guilty of a federal or state law involving the possession or sale of a controlled substance during a period of enrollment for which the student was receiving financial aid shall not be eligible to receive any federal, state, or institutional grant, loan, or work assistance for a specific period of time. The penalties for a drug-related conviction are available in the "What You Should Know" Brochure by clicking here.

Placement Information

Information on the types of employment obtained by LaGrange College graduates and graduate schools that the graduating class plans to attend is available in the Career Development Center at

(706) 880-8185. The information is obtained using a survey instrument given upon graduation and follow-up surveys one, two, and three years after graduation. The most recent information is available through the Career Development Center or by clicking <https://www.lagrange.edu/admission-and-aid/financial-aid/cost-of-attendance/index.html>.

Price of Attendance

Information about the price of attendance at LaGrange College, including a breakdown based on tuition, fees, room, and board, is available in the Business Office at (706) 880-8278 or may be viewed by clicking <http://www.lagrange.edu/admission-and-aid/financial-aid/cost-of-attendance/index.html>.

Refund Policies

A student who begins attending class and subsequently completely withdraws from all classes before the 60% point of the semester/quarter measured in calendar days receives a prorated refund of institutional charges as outlined in the College's refund policy.

A student who receives financial aid and begins attending class but subsequently reduces his enrollment status or completely withdraws is subject to federal and state refund and repayment regulations. In the event of a complete withdrawal before the 60% point of the semester/quarter, a financial aid recipient may not have earned all of the funds disbursed for the term and may owe a repayment to federal, state, and institutional aid programs. The College's refund policy is published in the LaGrange College Bulletin at <http://www.lagrange.edu/academics/undergraduate/academic-bulletins.html> or at <http://www.lagrange.edu/admission-and-aid/financial-aid/apply-for-aid/financial-aid-policies.html>. Questions regarding the refund policy may be directed to the Office of Financial Aid at (706) 880-8217 or Business Office at (706) 880-8278.

Retention Rates

Information on the retention rates of first-time, full-time, undergraduate degree-seeking students is available in from the Office of Institutional Effectiveness at (706) 880-8299 or by clicking here.

Scholarship Scams

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) web site contains important information for students and parents about scholarship scams. The FTC cautions the use of scholarship service agencies that say:

- "The scholarship is guaranteed or your money back."
- "You can't get this information anywhere else."
- "I just need your credit card or bank account number to hold this scholarship."
- "We'll do all the work."
- "The scholarship will cost some money."
- "You've been selected by a 'national foundation' to receive a scholarship" or "You're a finalist" in a contest you never entered.

If you believe you have been the victim of scholarship fraud, wish to file a complaint, or want more information, call 1(877) 382-4357 or see <http://www.ftc.gov/>.

Services and Facilities for Students with Disabilities

The Counseling Center works to ensure that educational accommodations are accessible to all qualified students in accordance with the provisions of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and expanded by Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Reasonable and appropriate accommodations, academic adjustments, and/or auxiliary aids are determined on a case-by-case basis for otherwise qualified students who have a demonstrated need for these services. More information on the services offered through the Counseling Center is available from Brandi Cameron, Section 504 coordinator, at (706) 880-8177 or at <http://www.lagrange.edu/campus-life/student-services/counseling-center.html>.

Student Activities

The Office of Student Engagement exists to provide students with involvement opportunities outside of the classroom. Such involvement opportunities can include social, cultural, intellectual, spiritual, athletic, recreational, artistic, political, and service activities. Information on student activities is available in the Office of Student Activities and Service at (706) 880-8776 or at <http://www.lagrange.edu/campus-life/activities-and-service/index.html>.

Statistics on the diversity of the study body at LaGrange College, which includes breakdown by gender and race/ethnicity, is available from the Office of Institutional Effectiveness at (706) 880-8299 or by clicking here.

Information on the student body diversity in the categories of gender and ethnicity of enrolled full-time Federal Pell Grant recipients can be found by clicking here.

Student Complaint Policy

LaGrange College encourages students to address complaints relating to College policies with personnel within the office or department that the complaint originated. Senior administration will be involved, as needed, to resolve the complaint at the institutional level. LaGrange College's Student Grievance Procedures are available in the Student Handbook at <http://panther.lagrange.edu/pdf/student-engagement/StudentHandbook.pdf>.

Complaints that are not successfully resolved by following the above grievance procedures can be forwarded to our accrediting agency, Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on College (SACS). Guidelines and procedures on filing a complaint with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges are available at <http://www.sacscoc.org/pdf/081705/complaintpolicy.pdf> or with the Georgia Nonpublic Postsecondary Education Commission at <https://gnpec.georgia.gov/webform/gnpec-student-complaint-form>.

Study Abroad

Students enrolled in a degree program at LaGrange College may receive financial aid, if they are otherwise eligible, for any study abroad program that is approved and acceptable for credit towards their degree program. Contact Ms. Michele Raphoon, Program Coordinator in the Office of Global Engagement for information on eligible study abroad programs at (706) 880-8429. For financial aid information contact the Office of Financial Aid at (706) 880-8217. Teacher Preparation Program Report

The 1998 Title II Federal Higher Education Amendments (HEA) (Sections 207 and 208) require all institutions of higher education that prepare students for careers in education and all states to prepare an annual report card for the U.S. Department of Education about the quality of educator preparation and certification. The Georgia Professional Standards Commission (GaPSC) is the agency that must prepare and submit the Georgia report card. Accountability for Educator Preparation in Georgia focuses on the quality of the candidates who are recommended for state certification. It also focuses on the performance of the education units' capacities approved by the GaPSC to prepare teacher candidates for state certification. The most recent State Report is available at <https://title2.ed.gov/View.asp>.

Textbook Information

Information regarding textbook requirements for individual courses including ISBN, title, author, and edition as well as pricing and purchase options is available through LaGrange College's virtual bookstore at <https://lagrange.ecampus.com/>.

Vaccination Policy

The LaGrange College Vaccination policy for all students attending regularly scheduled classes or living on campus is made available in the LaGrange College Student Handbook and can be found at <http://panther.lagrange.edu/pdf/student-engagement/StudentHandbook.pdf>.

Verification

A student who applies for financial aid and completes the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) may be selected for verification, which requires the student and his/her parents/spouse to provide specific income, asset, and other relevant information to the Financial Aid Office. Verification must be completed before a financial aid award can be made. The requested information must be submitted in a timely manner. The Verification Policy is available in the Financial Aid Office at (706) 880-8217 or at <http://www.lagrange.edu/admission-and-aid/financial-aid/apply-for-aid/completing-the-process.html>.

Voter Registration

Applications for voter registration for Georgia residents are available in the Office of Student Engagement or at the Secretary of State website, <https://sos.ga.gov/index.php/elections>. Residents of other states may find voter registration information for their state through the U.S. Election Assistance Commission at www.eac.gov.

Withdrawal Procedures

The College's withdrawal policy for courses is published in the LaGrange College Bulletin at <http://www.lagrange.edu/academics/undergraduate/academic-bulletins.html>. It is the student's responsibility to initiate the withdrawal by contacting the Source Center at (706) 880-8925. Students should consult with their academic advisor and the Office of Financial Aid at (706) 880-8241 regarding the impact of a withdrawal on academic standing and financial aid eligibility.
