As with any physical sport, participation in baseball involves risk of injury. These injuries may vary from the most minor (i.e. cuts, abrasions, contusions) to the most serious (i.e. severe trauma, death). In an effort to make baseball camp as safe as it can be, the coaching staff will instruct campers concerning the rules of baseball and the correct mechanics of all skills. It is vital that campers follow the coach's skill instructions, rules and policies to decrease the possibility of serious injury.
